

Master of Laws (LLM)

in International Legal Studies

WHY THIS LLM AT DEUSTO LAW SCHOOL?

International Legal Studies

Deusto LLM in International Legal Studies is an official Master that offers specialized training in the area of International Law for graduates of Law, International Relations, Business, Sociology or Political Science hoping to expand their networks and experience in an increasingly internationalized world. This LLM is also an ideal avenue for professionals seeking to deepen their international legal knowledge and practical skills, for persons committed to the promotion of human rights, social justice and a healthy environment, and for individuals with scholarly aspirations.

Deusto Law School, founded in 1886, is a top-ranked Law School, offering a highly qualified faculty, a multicultural student body, a dynamic and innovative urban setting, opportunities to apply legal theory and practical skills, and a global alumni network.

Academic Profile

Graduates in Law or in any other field with international background such as International Relations, Political Sciences, Sociology and Business Administration and Management.

Opportunities for personal and professional advancement

Academic networking is a key strategic goal for the University of Deusto. Accordingly, Deusto Law School is an active member of relevant networks such as the European Law Faculties Association (ELFA), the International Association of Jesuit Universities (IAJU), or the Association of Human Rights Institutes (AHRI), to name but a few.

After successful completion of the LLM, students will be able to initiate an international career at law firms, international organizations, corporations, NGOs, academia, think-tanks or domestic public bodies on gender equality, asylum-seekers or anti-discrimination, among other options.

Emilio Armaza
Professor of Criminal Law.
LLM Director

«Deusto Law School's academic excellence, combined with practical learning and a long-established international vocation, affords both Spanish and foreign students an unparalleled LLM experience».

Program

Students will follow a number of courses that draw mainly from Deusto's many areas of expertise, including European and International Law, Business Law, Human Rights Law and Refugee Law. While our main focus lies with traditional areas of Law, we also cover emerging and disruptive topics such as New Technologies and the Law, Climate Change, Biolaw or Data Analytics.

Diploma (DILS) in International Legal Studies

February - May

The Diploma in International Legal Studies (DILS) offers an intensive and specialized training in cutting-edge areas of International Law such as New Technologies and the Law, International Human Rights Law, Competition Law or Maritime Law. If you wish to take a course in a shorter period of time, this diploma is perfect for you.

	ECTS
Fall Semester	30
CHALLENGES OF CONTEMPORARY INTERNATIONAL LAW
European Integration and International Business	9
EU Integration: Law, Policies and Accountability	3
International Business Law	3
International Tax Law	3
Human Rights Law and the Protection of the Environment	9
International Human Rights Law	3
Environmental Law	3
Migration, Asylum and Refugee Law	3
INTERNATIONAL LAW IN PRACTICE
Training for International Legal Practice	6
Alternative Dispute Resolution and International Litigation	3
Tools for International Legal Practice	3
Field Experience Abroad (one week)	6

Key Features

Dedication	➤ Full time
Format	➤ On-campus
Calendar	➤ September – May
Number of Credits	➤ 60 ECTS
Language	➤ English
Field Experience Abroad	➤ included
International Mobility (optional)	➤ 6/12/18 ECTS
Tuition fees	➤ 10.962 €

	ECTS
Spring Semester	30
LAW, SCIENCE AND NEW TECHNOLOGIES	6
Biolaw	3
International Legal Analytics	3
OPTIONAL COURSES	18
To choose among:
Human Rights
Human Rights and Diversity in a Global Context	6
International Protection of Minorities and Indigenous Peoples	6
Transnational Law
Competition Law	6
Transport and Maritime Law	6
International Mobility	6, 12 or 18
Dissertation	6

FACULTY

Includes

María Pilar Canedo
 Professor of Private International Law and Competition Law
 Member of the Council of National Commission on Markets and Competition
 Jean Monnet Chair: European Union on Transnational Trade Law

Laura Gómez Urquijo
 Professor of Economics of the EU
 Jean Monnet Chair: EU Economic and Legal Integration for People

Mikel Mancisidor
 Senior Lecturer of Public International Law
 Adjunct Professor at Washington College of Law
 Vice President of the Committee on Economic, Social and Cultural Rights (United Nations)

María Luisa Sánchez Barrueco
 Senior Lecturer in EU Law
 Academic Director Jean Monnet Module: Students' Awareness of Public Integrity and Accountability in the European Union

George Ulrich
 Professor of Human Rights at Riga Graduate School of Law (Latvia)
 Academic Director of the European Master in Human Rights and Democratization (EMA)

David Fernández Rojo
 Associate Professor of Public International Law

Luis Gordillo
 Professor of Constitutional Law
 Academic Director Jean Monnet Module: Economic Constitution of the EU

Beatriz Pérez de las Heras
 Professor of European Law
 Jean Monnet Centre of Excellence Coordinator
 Jean Monnet Chair: Interdisciplinary Studies on European Integration

Diego Rodríguez Pinzón
 Co-Director of the Academy on Human Rights at Washington College of Law
 Member of the United Nations Committee against Torture

Maita V. Chan-Gonzaga
 Professor of Political Law
 Associate Dean for Academic Affairs at Ateneo Law School, Manila (The Philippines)

Felipe Gómez Isa
 LLM Academic Director
 Professor of Public International Law
 National Director of the European Master in Human Rights & Democratization (EMA)

«Deusto Law School's faculty is composed of leading scholars and practitioners from different parts of the world with top-ranked research and publications, and innovative teaching methods. Our School is a pioneer in European Studies and has been awarded with several Jean Monnet Actions by the European Commission to promote excellence in teaching and research».

FIELD EXPERIENCE ABROAD

The LLM in International Legal Studies includes an intensive week-long practical training that allows students to gain a comprehensive understanding of international legal issues. This academic activity is one of the highlights of this LLM.

Competition Law from an International Perspective

Our Field Experience Abroad on Transnational Law will take you to Luxembourg. This city is one of the key financial centers for acquiring an intensive understanding of Competition Law. We will know how markets work in the framework of the European legal system, exploring international companies' strategies and international taxation from a multidisciplinary perspective. This academic program will count on the collaboration of the Luxembourg Competition Authority.

Genocide, Mass Atrocities and Memory under International Law

Our Field Experience on Genocide, Mass Atrocities and Memory will take you to Krakow, Poland, where we will reflect during one week on issues related to genocide and memory. Against the background of the Holocaust, we will visit Auschwitz former concentration camp and the Krakow Ghetto to illustrate the logics of genocide and the politics of reparation, memory and international justice after gross violations of human rights. This academic program will count on the collaboration of the Center of European Studies of the Jagiellonian University in Krakow.

INTERNATIONAL MOBILITY

The spring semester offers the opportunity of following some optional courses in prestigious universities such as the Åbo Akademi University (Finland), Ateneo Law School of Manila (The Philippines), Washington College of Law at American University (USA), The George Washington University (USA), University of San Martin in Buenos Aires (Argentina) or Tiradentes University (Brasil).

The Bilbao Campus was declared a Site of Historical Interest in 2002. It is formed by several architecturally valuable buildings surrounded by green areas to enjoy a lovely campus life. The Campus is located in front of the Guggenheim Museum in the heart of the city.

Bilbao is a seaport, financial and economic hub which the Global Talent Competitiveness Index 2017 (GTCI) highlights among the world's best cities for its talent management. Bilbao was named European City of the Year in the 2018 Urbanism Awards.

Accommodation

On-campus accommodation

Deusto Accommodation Service aims to help students through the whole process of finding accommodation in Bilbao.

The Student Residence Hall (Colegio Mayor Deusto) offers top-quality accommodation facilities for students, researchers and lecturers in 300 individual rooms.

colegiomayor@deusto.es

Off-campus accommodation

There are other options available to students such as shared flats or family accommodation. Our personal advisory service may assist students with more information about private accommodation.

For further information about accommodation please send an email to:

Bilbao campus: acogida@deusto.es

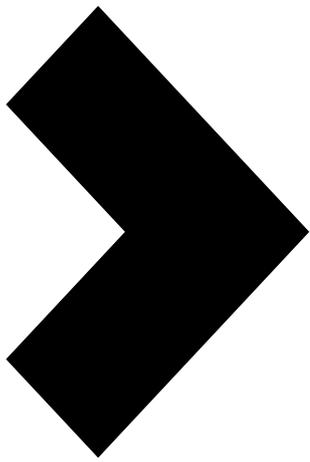

Admission Process

Admission is based on the applicant's academic training and professional background. Strong candidates will possess an excellent academic record, level certified of English (B2 or equivalent) and serious interest in experiencing legal education in a multicultural educational environment.

If you are interested in the program, please send an email with you CV and motivation letter to law@deusto.es, and you will receive a prompt reply from the LLM Academic Direction

Further details about admission process and language requirements can be found at www.llm.deusto.es

Faculty of Law

University of Deusto
Avda. de las Universidades, 24
48007 Bilbao

www.llm.deusto.es
law@deusto.es

master.deusto.es

 @DerechoDeusto